Club leaders are facing tremendous challenges arising from the novel COVID-19 outbreak...labor shortages requiring new services and solution for member engagement and satisfaction, even greater on-the-job time necessities for managers, and tending to the mental health of managers and their teammates. The question now is: how are you tending to your own mental health and motivation?

Discuss your most pressing issues with Henry DeLozier, a Principal at GGA Partners. GGA is a consulting firm which specializes in private club services and a great friend of the Evergreen Chapter. Henry will share his thoughts & best practice observations as to how Clubs are dealing with COVID-driven changes and preparing for 2022. bring your questions, which will lead to a healthy conversation and sharing of insights.
